

A. L. GARY NAMED RECEIVER TODAY

Appointment by Judge Sparks is Satisfactory to All Concerned in
Suit Against Jacksonian.

GRAY IS DENIED NEW TRIAL

Court Holds Alleged Misconduct of Juror Jones Had no Direct Bearing on Final Outcome.

A. L. Gary was appointed receiver for the Rushville Jacksonian today by Judge Sparks. The receiver was appointed by consent of George Puntenev, one of the defendants named yesterday in the complaint and A. L. Gary was satisfactory to all parties. The defendants did not enter an appearance to the suit by an attorney and it was agreed for the interest of all concerned that a receiver should take charge of the business.

Judge Sparks this morning overruled a motion for a new trial in the malicious prosecution suit of Otis Johnson against John A. Gray. Johnson was given a judgment for $350 against Gray by the jury and then the defendant, sought a new trial. The main argument for a new trial was the alleged misconduct of Juror Jones. Judge Sparks held that the conduct of Juror Jones had no direct bearing on the final outcome of the case, and overruled the motion. It is not known whether Gray will appeal the case.

The case of the Cumberland Bank against Andrew J. McDuffie and Clifford Smith, which was set for trial today, was dismissed and the costs paid by the plaintiff. This suit was sent here on a change of venue from Hancock county. The suit was on a note in which $125 was demanded. A written dismissal was filed.

The court appointed John B. Kirkpatrick as receiver for the property involved in the case of the Greenfield Building and Loan Association against Jerry Lynam and Thomas New. The court recently gave the plaintiff judgment and the receivership is for the period of one year, or during the redemption period.

Thomas Fitzgerald was appointed guardian for Elizabeth Wright. The court found that Mrs. Wright was not capable of managing her own business and made the appointment. The bond was fixed at $500.

A motion for a new trial was filed in the suit of the Pinnell-Tompkins Lumber company against Albert and Arsula Curry. When the case was tried the court found for the plaintiff in the sum of $534.06. The property involved has been advertised for sale to foreclose the mortgage.

Judge Sparks has appointed Solon E. Tevis and Annie Ward to the board of trustees of the Orange township library board for a period of four years.

Its long awaited military reorganization plan made public today provides for stupendous appropriations, beginning with $503,000,000 next year and extending over eight years. The army experts recommended a continental reserve of 500,000 men.

Ida Gore Brings Suit For Divorce
From Howard Gore

Mrs. Ida Gore filed suit for divorce today from Howard (Happy) Gore, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment and failure to provide. According to the complaint, they were married on September 23, 1900 and separated June 10, 1915. Mrs. Gore states that he often struck her, knocking her down, and that he frequently called her vile names. She alleged that during their married life he failed to provide. Young and Young represent the plaintiff.

CHIROPRACTOR IS HAULED INTO COURT

C. A. Thompson of Knightstown is Charged With Practicing Medicine Without License

HE GIVES BOND FOR $75

C. A. Thompson, a chiropractor of Knightstown, has been arrested in the Henry circuit court on a charge of practicing medicine without a license. The affidavit against Thompson was filed by the state medical society and is a continuation of the fight being waged against the chiropractors all over the state. The affidavit against Thompson alleges that he practiced medicine without a license from January 1, 1915 until the present time. The witnesses given are Tiffin Holland, Mrs. John Dora, Oscar Fowler and Wiley Williams, all of Knightstown. Thompson gave bond for his appearance in the sum of $75.

DECLARES STATE DEPARTMENT FAILED

Senator Hoke Smith, in First Speech
of This Session, Deplores
England's Attitude.

REGARDING FOREIGN TRADE

(By United Press.)

Washington, Dec. 10.—The state department has failed and congress must act if American rights on the seas are to be protected, Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia declared today in the first speech of the senate session.

Diplomatic protests to Great Britain over her blockade and orders in council have brought only "increased lawlessness," said the senator. England's present conduct he termed "a bold, reckless disregard of international law."

"And the crime is more flagrant," Smith asserted, "because England is permitting her traders to send to the neutral north European ports the same sort of material she is refusing to permit our business men to send."

PECULIAR FACTS ABOUT WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

Berlin, Nov. 15 (By Mail).—During the Lusitania note discussions Ambassador Gerard always wore a red necktie when he went to the German Foreign office. Asked one day why he did this, he replied: "Fire red, you know, shows that you mean business."

NO ONE WILL BE DISAPPOINTED

Postoffice Santa Claus Announces
That he Will Deliver All Christmas Gifts Received.

IF IT TAKES ALL DAY XMAS

Postmaster Hunt Makes Some Requests of Patrons to Expedite
Work During Rush Season.

Postmaster G. P. Hunt announced today that the postoffice force would be strengthened to take care of the Christmas rush. Speed and accuracy are to be the watchwords at the postoffice.

One extra man and a horse and wagon will be used for the Christmas delivery. With this equipment the force was almost swamped last season, but the carriers managed to get all of the parcel post packages out of the way by noon of Christmas day.

The same policy will be followed this year. The postoffice will deliver all parcels that reach here. It has been the object of the postoffice management not to disappoint any person who receives a Christmas gift. For that reason everything that arrives will be given over to its owner if it is possible to locate them. There are always a few parcels undelivered because the addresses can not be found.

In order to expedite the work of the postoffice force during the Christmas rush, patrons are urged, to insure parcels, to call at the window for insurance tags and fill them out themselves. The postmaster asked that this be done last year, but even then, with the co-operation of the public, one clerk was kept busy all the time writing out insurance tags while Postmaster Hunt and his assistant had plenty to do receiving parcel post packages for mailing.

Another request that the postmaster makes is that patrons not call at the windows for Christmas parcels.

"No one realizes what that one item means," said the postmaster. "If we look up a parcel for a patron at the postoffice, we have to go back to the mailing department and sort through hundreds of bulky packages. We will deliver every parcel, whether it be on any one of the twelve rural routes out of here or in the city. I have the authority to press the rural mail carriers in the service in the afternoon after they return from their routes if the rush is too large for the present force to handle."

Postmaster Hunt gave out some instructions concerning the Christmas rush which he received from the department at Washington:

Prepare postage fully on all parcels.

Place name and address of sender on all matter.

Pack articles carefully and wrap them securely, but do not seal them, as sealed parcels are subject to postage at the letter rate.

Mail parcels early; they may be marked, "Do Not Open Until Christmas."

Insure valuable parcels.

PROHIBITION LAW UPHELD.

Olympia, Wash., Dec. 10.—The Washington state prohibition law was upheld by the state supreme court today. Two of the six judges filed a dissenting opinion. The law becomes effective January 1, 1916.

A social to the members of the St. Paul's M. E. church will be given tonight at 7:30 o'clock by the official board of the church. A short program has been arranged.

NEW SOLDIER IN THE RANKS TODAY

Good Fellow Joins League And Asks
For a Couple of Wards to Make
Them Happy Christmas

BUT LOTS MORE ARE WANTED

Just Give The Grand Hailing Sign
of The League And You Can Get Anything You Want

The Goodfellows League had another joinee today—a new soldier in the ranks. He wants to play Santa Claus to a couple of children and his wants have been supplied. He has their names and addresses.

That makes eleven wards of the Goodfellows League who have been taken by a protector. Who's the next one? The Good Fellows may be few and far between just now, but the time is coming when they are going to be so thick that there will not be enough children to go around. That's always the case. But the point is that all of you whole-hearted Good Fellows ought to take a few right now and be prepared to supply a merry Christmas to some youngsters.

A. P. Wagoner is the latest addition to the ranks of the League. He called up this morning and said he wanted information about a pair of little folks that he could make happy on Christmas morning. His order was filled.

There are a hundred and six in the list yet and more to come. It's right next to impossible to determine now just how many there will be, but there will be plenty. All you Good Fellows who are now considering joining the League may rest assured of that.

There is room for all of the Good Fellows who want to join and there will be cases for everyone who applies. Step right up and give the grand hailing sign of the order, which is included in these cryptic words: "I want to be a Good Fellow; have you a case for me?" You will be fitted out with a case forthwith and then the receipt for a jug full of happiness is to go out and snare a lot of joy in the form of something that will bring Christmas cheer to the wards whose names you have.

Of course, all you Good Fellows are not the sort that want to see any Christmas tragedy in Rushville, if you can help it. When you have arrived at this conclusion, then it is time to act. Christmas is only two weeks off and you should have acted sooner. But that doesn't make any difference. There is still plenty of time. If you don't know of any little children who need taking care of at Christmas time, just drop a card to the Goodfellows League, care of the Republican office, and see how quickly you get results. Nothing ever invented beat it for speed.

If you can't find time to do the shopping yourself, just send a check and the League will find some Good Fellows who will spend it for you and spend it where you will get results—Christmas happiness. Don't put the matter off another hour—not another minute even. You can prevent the tragedy of the empty stocking in at least one home. Don't think that all of the children will be taken care of, even if you fail to do your part. Many are contemplating joining the League. Now is the time. That's all.

SOCIALISTS REACH AGREEMENT TODAY

In Caucus Decide Reply of Chan-

is Satisfactory

FEW RADICALS OPPOSED

By CARL W. ACKERMAN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Berlin, Dec. 10.—Socialist members of the Reichstag decided in party caucus today that the reply of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg to peace queries was entirely satisfactory.

They voted that there was, therefore, no reason for hostility toward the government, whose enemies have been continually stating that it favored annexation.

This resolution it is understood to have passed the caucus by a large majority, a few radicals dissenting.

HUGH TH. MILLER WITHDRAWS TODAY

Opponent of James E. Watson in Race For Republican Nomination Leaves Field

SICKNESS GIVEN AS CAUSE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 10.—Hugh T. Miller of Columbus today announced his withdrawal from the race of the candidates of the Republican nomination for United States senator. He gave sickness as the cause.

Miller's withdrawal was telegraphed from Faranac Lake, New York. He said specialists there ordered him to withdraw because a severe cold contracted several weeks ago developed some lung trouble. His complete recovery is expected.

News of the action spread quickly and there was some talk of Will Hays, state chairman, or Harry S. New, former national chairman, entering the field against James E. Watson of Rushville and others.

WAR NEWS OF ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

This marked the 130th day since England's entrance into the war. Servian troops forced the Austrians back upon Belgrade with heavy losses. Bulgarian Minister Panaretoff said Bulgaria would not fight with the Allies unless territory taken after the second Balkan war, was returned.

IT AMOUNTS TO AN ULTIMATUM

America's Note on Ancona Case Places Country in Position to Sever Relations.

STRONG DEMANDS ARE MADE

Understood President Wilson Says
Austrian Consul Von Nuber at
New York Must Go.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Dec. 10.—America's note to Austria on the Ancona was practically an ultimatum, it was learned on high authority today.

It was stated on high authority that this country has placed herself in a position to severe diplomatic relations with Vienna if Austria does not accede to demands made in the note.

It is understood President Wilson says that Austrian Consul Von Nuber at New York must go. The evidence against this official has been accumulating for some time but as in the case of Von Papen action has been postponed, it is understood, for reasons best known to the administration.

The demands of the note to Austria are very strong and an immediate reply is requested. What are their exact nature can not be learned, but it is understood that one feature requires that the captain of the submarine which sank the Ancona be held to strict accountability for his act.

It is understood to be this government's idea that owing to the relationship between Germany and Austria it was not necessary to handle the Ancona incident from the beginning as in the case with Germany but rather to handle it with the understanding this country's attitude and that negotiations should be picked up where they were left off with Germany.

No more delays such as have been in negotiations in the Lusitania case will be tolerated.

Amusements

The Gem will show a three reel feature "A Mother's Atonement" for the program tonight. Cleo Madison is featured. The story was written by Ida May Parks and Miss Madison is shown in a dual role. It is said to tell a powerful story. Tomorrow matinee and night "A Kentucky Idyll" will be shown.

The Princess offers the spectacular production, "Damon and Pythias" for the program tonight. It is a mammoth production full of thrills, delights and entertaining while it awes with its beauty and elaborate details. The story of Damon and Pythias is well known and the picture goes even beyond telling the story as the details are not overlooked. The show started with a matinee this afternoon and will be continuous until last show tonight.

In the latest William Fox production "Should a Mother Tell," coming to the Princess on Monday night, there is seen dramatic action that is rarely if ever beheld upon the screen. The story itself, by Rex Ingram, is one of exceptional power and represents a problem that calls for dramatic action of such intensity as could be portrayed by perhaps no other actress than Betty Nansen. As the mother torn between an almost fanatical sense of justice and a desire for happiness of her daughter, Miss Nansen has opportunities to display her wonderful emotional powers exceptionally. Stuart Holmes supports Miss Nansen and this picture is said to be remarkable in many respects.

A real London Gaiety Theater Company will invade the Murat, Indianapolis, Dec. 13-14-15th, matinee Wednesday, presenting "Tonight's The Night," a fabrication of fun and harmony which in London and New York has already dried more tears than might be contained in a cistern, prevented a hundred suicides, given a new lease on life to thousands and scattered general laughter everywhere in its proximity. London Gaiety successes have often been seen in London, but this is the first time in more than a decade that a Gaiety success has ben presented in the State with a real Gaiety company.

Ever see "Pink Dolinooes?" That excellent plot is the basis of "Tonight's The Night." Paul A Rubens who proved in "The Sunshine Girl" and "The Girl From Utah," that genuinely original melody could be written, has written a whole lot more of it in "Tonight's The Night." What does a recital of the names of successes mean to people who have heard these successes? Nothing—yet to those who have heard those detached airs from "Tonight's The Nights," the more recounting will evoke wonderfully pleasant memories: "Please Don't Flirt With Me," "Play Me That Tune," Land and Water," "I'm a Millionaire," "Boots and Shoes," "Dancing Mad" and "Pink and White."

The principals of "Tonight's The Night" are already known to local playgoers by their individual efforts in other fields of theatric endeavor. Combined they should make an irresistible phalanx for the destruction of gloom. Among them will be found Laddie Cliff, Cyril Chadwick, Phyllis Maude, Alice Gordon, Stewart Baird, Phillip Travers, Audrey Maple, Wilfred Seagram, Dorothy Maynard, Renee Parker, Alfred Henning, Edward Naimby, Cecil, Clovelly and a number of others.

The four scenes represent a picturesque country place on the Thames; the foyer of Convent Garden during a ball masque. Convent Garden market on a busy day and the Bohemian flat of an actress in Piccadilly.

If one considers it necessary to know anything about the plot of it may suffice to say that it concerns the happenings when a pair of sweethearts strive to test the faithfulness of their swains, putting their affections to the grid of secret inquisition.

Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Murat local representative, Hargrove & Mullin.

Remember Your Neighbors

We want to make one last plea before Christmas for the business interests of this community.

During the next few days you will all be putting the finishing touches to your Christmas shopping, and much money will be passing over some one's counters.

We ask you to remember the home merchant whenever you can do so without actual detriment to yourself. He is your neighbor, your friend, the man who has worked loyally with you to make Rushville what it is, to build up our schools, and our churches and to create all of the other advantages of which we are so proud.

His money has always been ready to help along any laudable enterprise, and his voice and hands have ever been at work in the interest of you and yours, as well as his.

Spend as much of your money in Rushville, with our own people, as is possible this Christmas.

We are making this last plea in behalf of the business men without their knowledge, and it goes to you without their sanction. We are doing it because we think you are all a just people, and that wherever possible you will spend your money in such a way that it will be of benefit to all of the people as well as yourself, yourself.

For this is our home town, and home, you know, will always be just what we make it.

It is reported that reindeer meat is coming into the American market. This report follows on the heels of Secretary Redfield's announcement that the Department of Commerce has turned itself into a middleman for the distribution of toys made in Switzerland throughout the United States. Dasher and Prancer and Viven and Blitzen must go to the slaughter house, while Redfield of the sunset whisker masquerades as Santa Claus and press-agents the Swiss toy industry to the detriment of American toy manufacturers.

Seeds, seedlings, hedge plants, shrubbery, etc., are furnished free to country schools in North Dakota by the State School of Forestry. In addition, the services of the State Forester in planning and laying out school grounds are available without cost.

is time for some other millionaire American to pull off a fool stunt and render his country even more ridiculous in the eyes of the rest of the world. Come right along, Rocks. Barnumonce said that "a fool was born every minute," and we believe it.

The Amateur Athletic Union has given evidence that it will make a thorough probe of all charges of professionalism. The Kiviat-Smith case, to be ruled on finally early in January, is but the forerunner, it is announced, of a long list of investigations.

A veteran teachers' association, composed of teachers with 25 or more years experience, is organized in Berks County, Pa. The association has 60 members, 25 of whom have taught 30 years or more. Two have taught more than 40 years, and one has seen 52 years of service as a teacher.

Men are mighty queer creatures, or whatever else you choose to call 'em. Some of 'em will raise merry hades if the baby lets out a chirp and then they'll turn right around and pile into bed and snore all night like a buzz saw in operation. And if you don't believe it just ask the long suffering wife.

Two hundred million pennies are in circulation in Chicago, and yet the Windy City is facing a penny famine, and is beseeching the government to send it more millions. Some villages never do get enough.

And now the deer constituents will receive sundry copies of fervid and oratorical speeches which Congressman So and So never delivered.

President Wilson insists that congress must trim every ounce of "pork" from its bills this session. Lord, what a bat between the eyes!

If congress starts the eagle to screaming our poor old national bird will have a mighty sore throat before that bunch gets through with it.

Current Comments

The Ineffective Tariff.

(Washington Post.)

The statement that the European war, resulting in interference with commerce and the subtraction of millions of workers from European mills, is acting as an equivalent to a protective tariff is completely disproved by statistics prepared by the Department of Commerce. These statistics show that under the present tariff law, which permits 70 per cent of all foreign goods to enter free of duty, importations are gradually increasing despite the engagement of many nations in war.

Comparing the period of eight months which ended with August, 1915, with the corresponding period of 1914, the figures show that the increase in importations is accumulating at such a rate that the difference between the war period and the peace period is merely the difference between $1,270,361,263 and

$1,150,858,960. In other words, the decline in imports is a little more than 10 per cent. This decline, as shown by the figures of the Department of Commerce, is nothing like the amount generally anticipated.

The war period imports, moreover, are compared with the period when imports had reached their highest point under the Underwood law. If compared with any period under the protective tariff law, it would be found that there has been little if any, decrease in importations. What decrease there has been can be accounted for without trouble by the stoppage of importations from Germany and Austria-Hungary, yet even during the war Austria has sent $4,500,000 worth of goods to the United States, while Germany has sent nearly $37,000,000 worth.

Meanwhile, England, using all her commercial efforts to wage the war, has sent nearly $162,000,000 worth of cheap labor products to the United States. Owing to the interference of Great Britain the United States, which in eight months of the peace period sold $156,000,000 worth of goods to Germany, suffered a decline in trade amounting to $155,000,000.

Where the United States sold nearly $13,000,000 worth of goods during the peace period to Austria-Hungary, only $43,000 worth was sold during the eight months of the peace period.

The stupendous increase in the foreign trade of the United States, upon which prosperity is depending to a great extent, was made up by the increased exports to such countries as France, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Great Britain and the nations of South America.

But the present tariff is not helping business. It is not equivalent to protection. It is wholly ineffectual at present, and it will be ruinous after the war is over.

HOOSIER HISTORY

Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.

Senators Hendricks And Turpie

The prospect of Indiana's sending two Democrats to the United States senate was appalling to the Republican minority of 1863. Especially as one of the candidates, Hendricks, was not in sympathy with the war and was known to lean towards the idea of a Northwestern Confederacy. When the Republican members of the state senate failed in the attempt to secure a pledge of loyalty from the legislature they bolted leaving the senate without a quorum. After holding out some days unsuccessfully, for favorable terms, they returned and Thomas A. Hendricks and David Turpie were elected U. S. Senators, by a vote of 85 to 62.

Proposed Northwest Confederacy

Democratic successes in the fall election of 1825 was attributed largely to the fact that the people considered that the interests of the whole Mississippi valley were identical; that their destiny was unalterably linked with the south which controlled the mouth of the river and the south was winning.

Some Democrats advocated the organization of a Northwest confederacy, composed of Indiana Ohio and Illinois, on the break up of the union, following the success of the south. To offset and check this tendency, the government bestirred itself in the great project of opening up the Mississippi river and cutting in two the confederacy.

BOSSERT FAVORED FOR CHAIRMANSHIP

Liberty Man is Said to be Slated to Lead Republican Organization
in This District.

GOOD SHOWING AS CANDIDATE

Richmond, Ind., Dec. 10.—Walter Bossert, attorney and one of Union county's hardest working Republicans, in Richmond today discussed the district chairmanship seriously with Wayne county Republicans and it is probable that he will ask for the place. Two years ago it had been arranged to make Bossert district chairman if Lynch were nominated for congress. But the plans went awry and Bossert was named as the Republican candidate for joint-senator, Wayne and Union counties. In Wayne county, outside of Richmond, he was one vote ahead Hugh Th. Miller, the "head of the ticket," but in Richmond was about 200 votes behind. He was conceded one of the strong men on the ticket.

Wayne county Republicans believe that Bossert can put life into the district organization.

* SANTA CLAUS UP TO DATE. *

* * * * *

Every year I am tempted to come out on a housetop and tell the young and self raising generation the truth about Santa Claus.

I believed it only right that the children should know Santa Claus no longer goes about in a dinky little sleigh, delivering toys down the chimneys. He simply couldn't do it if he tried. That kind of thing was all right when his business was small and he was younger than he is now. In those days he made the toys himself—glued even the little tails of the little toy sheep in place, stuck the little eyes on the tops of their little heads, painted the little bodies as different from the real thing as he could and do it quick, and then, hitching up his six reindeer, delivered the whole batch before sunrise Christmas morning. It is different now.

Santa Claus is old, and all he does is to live on the profits of the business. The business now is run under the name of S. Claus & Co., and the firm has many workers—clerks, drivers and the rest. Some of the employees of this big firm have grown so careless that they miss little boys and girls who live in our of the way places. Old Santa Claus never did such a thing in his life.

If any of our young people are over-looked this year they must not blame Santa Claus. He is just as jolly and good as ever. They'll have to blame it on the new driver that looks after their section of the earth.

WILL PLAY GAME OF INDOOR FOOTBALL

First Contest in Seventeen Years

Will be Staged at Milwaukee

Tonight

MARQUETTE FRESHMEN PLAY

(By United Press.)
Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 10.—The regular football season is all over but there is going to be one more game in Milwaukee tonight. For the first time in seventeen years, since the University of Wisconsin eleven played Carlisle, Milwaukeeans will have an opportunity to see an indoor football game.

The Marquette university freshmen and the academy team are going to meet in the auditorium, the proceeds of the game to be turned over to St Vincent's Orphan Asylum.

More than 3,000 tickets for the game had been sold today. Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago with a delegation from the Windy City is scheduled to arrive at 7 o'clock for the game. Judge John C. Karel, Henry F. Cohens and William Juneau, all former Wisconsin university stars, will be the officials.

Between halves, Gov. E. L. Philip will speak for five minutes; Company A, Wisconsin National Guard will give some exhibition drills. A burlesque game will be played before the main event.

WHY SANTA LIVES

Was there ever a wider or more loving conspiracy than that which keeps the venerable figure of Santa Claus from slipping away, with all the other old time myths, into the forsaken wonderland of the past? Of all the personages whose marvelous doings once filled the minds of men he alone survives.

He has outlived all the great gods and all the impressive and poetic conceptions which once fitted between heaven and earth—these have gone, but Santa Claus remains by virtue of a common understanding that childhood shall not be despoiled of one of its most cherished beliefs, either by the mythologist, with his sun myth theory, or the scientist with his heartless diatribe against superstition.

There is a good deal more to be said on this subject if this were the place to say it. Even superstition has its uses and sometimes its sound heart of truth. He who does not see in the legend of Santa Claus a beautiful faith on one side and the naive embodiment of a divine fact on the other is not fit to have a place at the Christmas board. For him there should be neither carol nor holly nor misletoe. They only shall keep the feast to whom all these things are but the outward and visible signs of an inward and spiritual grace—Hamilton Wright Mabie.

WAR BOOM TOWN DAMAGED BY FIRE

Hopewell, Va., Homes in Ruins Today Following Serious Blaze

Starting Thursday Afternoon.

NEGRO REPORTED LYNCHED

Mushroom Town of 25,000 Population is Hard Hit and Malitia

Controls Quiet Today.

(By United Press.)
Petersburg, Va., Dec. 10.—Hopewell, the war bomb town which was wiped out by fire, after a spectacular rise in six months, was quiet today.

Reports sent by Major Bowles, commanding the militia in charge of the ruins and the fire devastated town, this afternoon indicated that order is being preserved. The militia commander denied stories of killing by his troops.

"Several companies of the national guard are maintaining strict watch to prevent looting but have not had to shoot," Bowles reported.

The lynching of the negro reported by refugees arriving here, was also denied by Bowles.

Reports of violence at Hopewell, Va., reached here by courier earlier today following the failure of wire communications with the stricken powder city. The reports said three persons have been killed.

A negro was hanged to a telegraph pole. Several others, including an Italian who went insane following the loss of his money, were shot down by soldiers. Five persons were reported shot by another Italian who fired when an attempt was made to prevent him from going into a burning bank.

Hopewell, Va., Dec. 10.—This war bomb town of 25,000 inhabitants, which has grown up since last summer with the mammoth new explosive plant of the DuPont Powder company, was partially in ruins today following the fire which started Thursday afternoon in a Greek restaurant and did property damage estimated at near $2,000,000. The DuPont works outside the settlement completely escaped damage, although for a time was seriously threatened.

Scenes of wild disorder accompanied the fire and citizens are said to have lynched a negro for looting. There was no loss of life otherwise, however, and only a few minor injuries were reported.

Martial law was being enforced by seven militia companies brought to the scene by a special train under orders from Governor Stuart.

While many of the buildings in the eastern section of the town were saved by a strong wind blowing in the opposite direction, some three hundred houses were destroyed, and thousands of persons left homeless. Special trains were run to Petersburg and Richmond, carrying men, women and children to find shelter.

The fire raged from 1:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon until nearly 9 o'clock at night. Available fire fighting apparatus was utterly inadequate, the flames eating their way through the flimsy frame structures, thrown up during the early days of the town last summer, like so much tinder.

Several times sparks set fire to mule sheds of the explosive factory, but the flames which followed were quickly extinguished.

When it seemed that the town was doomed and the plant endangered, orders were issued suspending all operations and the factory closed down. The shift then at work was set to work protecting the buildings from flying sparks. The gravest danger was from woods nearby, which caught fire and were still burning late tonight.

About 4 o'clock in the afternoon one-half of the town's water supply was portion of the high tension cable of the DuPont company collapsed, snapping the wires which feed the current to the Appomattox River electric pumping station. It was feared the remainder of the wires would go, but prompt efforts by workmen prevented this.

Hopewell policemen, assisted by a special force of the powder company, held the situation well in hand until the troops arrived. There was the greatest confusion, but few attempts at looting.

Many of those who had personal belongings and household goods removed them to places of safety far away from the fire. Surrounding the community, which lay in ashes, could be seen men, women and children seated upon such belongings as they had been able to save. It was not unusual to see new standing nearby with freely displayed revolvers, while some flourished repeating rifles.

While the fire raged the police were busy on all sides keeping back a great throng of people eager to get near the flaming structures for a better view of the conflagration. Though many were insistent, the officers were able to keep them within the bounds of safety.

As soon as it was realized that the place was doomed, the police, assisted by experts from the powder plant, began dynamiting buildings. When the first blast was set off, many persons thought there had been an explosion of gun cotton at the big plant, but when other detonations followed the explanation soon spread and fears were quited.

BIG ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN

Few people have any conception of the magnitude of the Red Cross Christmas Seal campaign. Here are a few figures that will show what a gigantic movement this is. Already 225,000,000 seals have been printed and practically that entire number distributed to agents in every state and territory of the Union from Alaska in the North to the Canal Zone in the south and from Porto Rico in the East to Hawaii in the West. Advertising circulars, posters, cards, etc., to the number of several million have also been distributed. Not less than 1,000,000 personal letters asking people to buy seals have been sent out. It is estimated that the army of workers, nearly all of whom are volunteers, engaged in selling the seals numbers well over 500,000. The advertising and publicity donated to the campaign amounts to several hundred thousand dollars. Every effort is being put forth to sell 75,000,000 seals, or less than one for every man, woman and child in the United States. This will mean $750,000 for the anti-tuberculosis campaign in the United States, and particularly all of the 1,200 anti-tuberculosis associations of the country derive their support from Red Cross Seals.

Combing Won't Rid Hair Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

CHAMBERS NOT OUT OF THE RACE

Editor of Newcastle Times Says he Couldn't Withdraw Because he Never Announced Candidacy.

HE HAS HEARD OF J. M. LONTZ

Richmond, Ind., Dec. 10.—Walter
Chambers, Democratic chairman of the Sixth district and editor of the Newcastle Times, denied that he had withdrawn from the contest for the Democratic congressional nomination.

"It would be impossible for me to withdraw," Mr. Chambers said in a long distance telephone conversation, "for the simple reason that I have never announced myself as a candidate for the congressional nomination."

"Now would be an excellent time
for you to make such announcement it was suggested to the Newcastle editor.

"I have nothing to say," he replied.
"Do you know of any one who intends to oppose Finly H. Gray for the congressional nomination?" he was asked.

"I have heard the name of John M. Lontz of Richmond, mentioned,"
he said.

"Anyone else?" was the next question.

"Yes, I have heard other names
mentioned in that connection but I do not care to mention who they are," he replied.

Several days ago Mr. Lontz announced that he was not a candidate against Mr. Gray. He said he did not have any political ambitions and merely desired to devote all his time
to his business. However, Lontz supporters point out, he did not say
he would not be a candidate and they are hopeful of inducing him to enter the lists.

All over the district anti-Gray
Democrats are now busy considering ways and means of slipping the skids
under the Connorsville politician, and reports from various counties indicate that the anti-Gray forces
would like very much to have Mr.
Lontz as a candidate against Gray.

CHRISTMAS DREAMS.

Where every Christmas of which we have been present at the celebration painted accordingly to nature,
what a gallery of pictures! True
that a sameness would pervade them
all, but only that kind of sameness
that pervades the nocturnal heavens.
One clear night always is to common eyes just like another, for what hath any night to show but one moon and same stars—a blue vault, with here a few braided and there a few castellated clouds? Yet no two nights ever bore more than one family resemblance to each other before the stupidous and instructed eye of him who has long communed with nature and is familiar with every smile and frown on her changeable, but not capricious, countenance. Even so with the annual festivals of the heart.

"Thoughts that like spirits trackless come—and go" is a fine line of Charles Lloyd's. But no bird skims, no arrow pierces the tir without producing some change in the Universe.
No coming or going is absolutely trackless, nor irrecoverable by nature's law is any consciousness, however ghostlike, though many a one,
even the most blissful, never does return, but seems to be buried among the dead. But they are not dead, but only sleep, though to us who recall them not they are as they had never been, and we, wretched ingrates, let them lie forever in oblivion. How passing sweet when of our own accord they rise to greet us in our solitude!—Christophre North.

BABY FARM IS FOR SALE

Exhibit at Exposition Offered For Most Any Price

(By United Press.)

San Francisco, Dec. 10.—For sale
—a baby farm. San Francisco can have it at its own price. It has saved scores of babies born into the world
apparently without a chance to live.
This station is the incubator exhibit in the closed Joy Zone at the Exposition. Dr. Couney has been saving frail mites of humanity with the dimes paid for admission by the curious. He suggested that it be made a permanent institution. Children born into the world prematurely or apparently too small to exist, rested in the incubator from one to four months and today they are healthy, lusty infants.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils
Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing; no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

A crystal glass humidor jar containing one pound of Tuxedo, the mildest, most fragrant tobacco. At every store where tobacco products are sold.

Last Christmas more Jars of Tuxedo were given to men throughout the United States than any other single trade-marked article!

Because Americans are learning to make suitable gifts at Christmas time—and learning that Tuxedo is the best gift of all for a man.

Tuxedo is the mildest, pleasantest pipe tobacco in the world—made absolutely non-biting and delightfully mellow by the original "Tuxedo Process" that has never been successfully imitated.

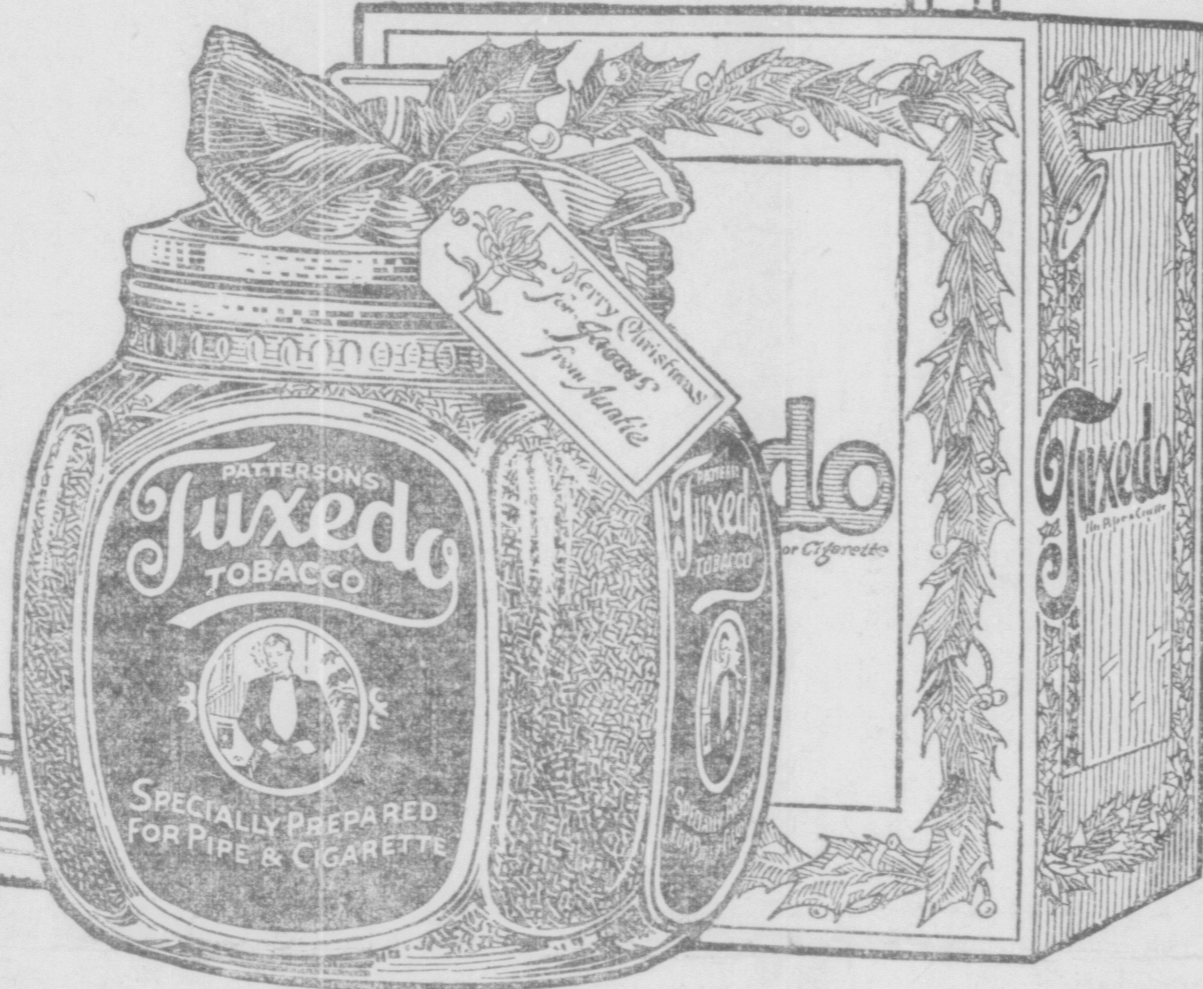

Last Christmas the demand for Tuxedo humidor jars was so great that the supply of many dealers was exhausted, and thousands of people were disappointed. The safe plan is to place your order with your dealer now. He will be glad to set your jar aside for you until Christmas.

PERROTT WILL LIKELY BE TRIED

Believed That Indianapolis Police Chief Will Have Hearing on Charge Similar to Bell Case

DISMISSALS ARE EXPECTED

Perrott's Name Was Frequently Mentioned at First Trial—No One to Assist The State

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 10.—That Chief of Police Samuel V. Perrott will be tried on election conspiracy charges similar to those on which Mayor Joseph Bell was recently acquitted was the belief today prior to the hearing for motions, which will come tomorrow. There was some reason to believe that Perrott's case will be set for trial next.

Prosecutor Rucker did not hesitate to say that there will be many dismissals, but he would not intimate which of the 100-odd defendants to the indictment would not be tried.

Belief that Perrott would be forced to stand trial was based largely on the fact that his name figured largely in the evidence against Mayor Bell. Prosecutor Rucker would not deny that he intended to try Perrott next.

There were indications today that County Chairman Fred Barrett and Robert Metzger, members of the board of safety, would draw dismissals tomorrow. It was not known whom Rucker would employ to assist him, if any one. Joseph Roach, who served as deputy prosecutor during the Bell trial has announced that he will not again assist the state.

The Photograph as a Christmas gift stands supreme. Sit now at the Wallace Studio.

SECTARIAN IS OF ANOTHER AGE

Denominational Bully Can no Longer Represent Christianity, Speaker Says at Conference.

CLOSES TONIGHT AT COLUMBUS

Time Arrives For one Denominational C-Operation Both in City and Rural Communities.

Columbus, O., Dec. 10.—"The narrow offensive church sectarian and denominational bully can no longer represent Christianity in this country, whatever their church affiliations. Growing co-operation among churches will at once rid all communities of such intolerant men."

This assertion by Rev. John M. Moore of Nashville, Tenn., was vigorously applauded today at the national conference of the Commission on church and country life. Rev. Moore was one of several speakers who attacked the spirit of aloofness maintained by some churches, and who urge further federation of religious organizations. Henry Wallace, Des Moines agricultural editor and former member of Roosevelt's country life commission, in an address deplored the system of tenantry and urged longer leases for farms.

The conference will close tonight with an address by President Wilson. Business sessions of the executive committee of the Federal Council of Churches will end then also.

"Some denominations have an exalted opinion of their providential and predestined importance and are not inclined to co-operation of any kind," he added. "They claim to be the Lord's peculiar people—and they are. Denominational conceit seldom lends itself to the promotion of other than self interests."

"The time has come when denominational co-operation in both city and rural church and rural church life is practically essential to any great social and religious movement. The place to begin is not in the local community, however, but in the denominational councils of those organizations directly involved."

"No minister has a moral right to preach such a sermon or express his beliefs in such a way as to give offense to persons holding different doctrines. It is denominationalism that has divided Christian people into feeble bands and made the support of competent ministers impossible. Present conditions cry out against further postponement of a great co-operative effort by churches. I hope every county in the United States will have such church federations soon, and that the churches of each city will band together for their common cause." Rev. Dr. Moore is secretary of home missions for the Methodist Episcopal church, South.

Mr. Wallace, who is widely known as a writer and speaker on agricultural reforms, declared prosperous country churches are dependent on prosperous economic conditions, and that tenantry is one of the greatest foes to this prosperity. He advocated "an arrangement of leasing that will make the tenant a reasonably permanent citizen in the community, in other words, no longer leases."

Other speakers today were Rev. E. Tallmadge Root, Boston; Dr. W. C. Clippinger, Westerville, O.; Rev. George Luncecock, Oak Park, Ill.; and Bishop William F. Anderson, Cincinnati. Prof. Shailer Mathews of Chicago, president of the Federal Council of Churches, was to preside tonight and introduce President Wilson.

Road To Health Is Through The Kidneys

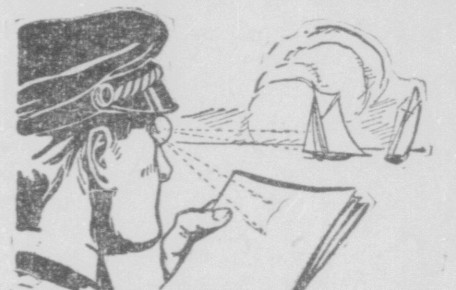

No person alive is stronger than his kidneys. The minute the kidneys become disarranged or clogged with waste the warning is flashed throughout the entire system. The greater part of all sickness today can be avoided by keeping the kidneys working properly.

Johnson's Drug Store the popular druggist, can tell you of many well-known people in this city whom Solvax, the standard kidney remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit.

This remarkable kidney remedy is guaranteed to help the worst case of lazy, sluggish, or clogged-up kidneys, or the general headachy, kinky-backed, played-out condition that afflicts people suffering with kidney trouble. Solvax does not simply relieve. It aims to cure.

No other kidney remedy has made such a large percentage of cures as Solvax. It is so large that Johnson's Drug Store is perfectly safe in standing ready to refund the price to any customer whom it does not help.

Pains Often Mean Uric Acid Poison

Pay Attention to Pains—Most People Have Rheumatism And Don't Know It

Ouch! Does it hurt to move your arms, legs, bend your back or stretch your muscles? Be careful and take heed in time. Rheumatism is stealing on you and may cripple you if you don't stop uric acid from settling in your veins and muscles.

Rheuma, a great specialist's prescription, chases this poison out of the system and gives relief from all forms of Rheumatism. It acts through the seat of the trouble, the kidneys, stops the formation of uric acid, then drives out through the bowels that which is in the blood.

Genuine Rheuma (see that you get the trade-marked package) is sold by Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists for 50 cents. Money back if not satisfied.

WALKING CRAZE HITS NEW YORK

Revival of Habit Has Taken Gotham

Folks by Storm—Looks Like Parade on Sunday

CLUBS HAVE BEEN FORMED

Amateur Athletic Union Will Make Thorough Probe Into Charges of Professionalism

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Dec. 9.—Revival of the walking club habit is taking New York folks by storm. So many pedestrians are hiking north on the Yonkers road every Sunday it looks like a parade. With tennis frozen out, and golf only possible on miniature courses on hotel roofs or at the winter resorts, most of the racket and bogey fiends have joined the hikers.

Clubs with high-sounding titles, including the Walkers Association of America, for instance, have been formed and are padding the macadam twenty-five miles or so every Sunday. From Van Cortland park to Ardsley is the favorite jaunt, though some of the Western imitators are striking off into the mosquito belt of Jersey. Several walking clubs composed of women have been formed.

SECURITY LEAGUE BACKS IT

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 9.—Governor Ralston has invited twenty-five mayors of Indiana cities to attend the military ball which will be given here the evening of December 15 by Company C. The mayors, of course, are requested to bring their wives.

This became known today. The ball will be pleasing to the preparedness people. At least, the local members of the National Security league are interesting themselves in its behalf. It will be a benefit for Company C, of which Capt. Foster C. Shirley is the ranking officer.

Rushville people testify to their worth. Read a case of it:

Mrs. Sallie Levi, 931 North Sexton street, Rushville, says: "My back at times became weak and lame and the kidney secretions are too frequent in passage and very annoying. Every time I have been this way, I have procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from Johnson's Drug Store, and they never fail to relieve me. Nothing else I have ever taken has done me so much good."

If You Have Catarrh Read This

Breathe Hyomei Four Times a Day And Watch Results. Gives Prompt Relief

The pleasantest, most convenient and most scientific method for the treatment of catarrh is Hyomei. Simply put a few drops of Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every package and then breathe its air for a few minutes, four times a day.

It seems remarkable that so simple a way of treating catarrh will effect such quick relief, but the most important discoveries of science have always been the simplest. By breathing Hyomei in this way every particle of air that enters the air passages of the throat and head that goes into the lungs is charged with a healing balsam that kills the germs and bacilli of catarrh and soothes and allays irritation.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show an improvement and in a short time there should be no further trouble from catarrh. Its action is rapid and lasting.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. A complete outfit is inexpensive but if after using you can say that it has not helped you Johnson's Drug Store will return your money. What other treatment for catarrh is sold under a guarantee like this?

IS MANAGER OF A KANSAS CITY HOTEL

Miss Mary Scanlan, Formerly of This City, is in Sole Charge of New Hostelry at Kanass City.

WRITES HER FRIENDS HERE

Word has been received here that Miss Mary Scanlan, formerly of this city, is managing the new Cortez hotel in Kansas City. Miss Scanlan formerly operated the Scanlan House here for many years. Miss Scanlan writes that while Kansas City is a very busy place, no place looks quite so good to me as the little cottage on Fifth. The following clipping is from the Mid-West Hotel Reporter.

The new Cortez hotel, opened Oct. 25, is under the sole management of Miss M. Scanlan, a practical hotel woman with years of experience. With relatives, Miss Scanlan owned and operated the Scanlan hotel in Rushville, Ind., for over twenty years. Later she took the management of Martinsville Sanitarium, leaving that work to again take up hotel business, which was more to her liking. When the Cortez was opened by J. H. Dowler, the management was offered to Miss Scanlan, she reporting for her new post in advance of the opening day to give the place the benefit of her hotel knowledge by personally attending to many things not to be entrusted to others. The Mid-West predicts a successful career for Miss Scanlan, her abilities being such that they will warrant rapid advancement in the field she has chosen.

GOOD HOTELS WANT SOME PROTECTION

Legitimizes Desire Not to be Associated in Name With Dives—Desire a Law

CONVENTION OPENED TODAY

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Legitimate hotels want protection from being associated in name with dives. The National Congress of Hotel Associations, opening an annual session at the Great Northern hotel today, launched a movement for federal or uniform state legislation, defining, "What is a hotel?" Thirty delegates from that many states attended.

"The assignation house and the resort now can legally call themselves hotels," said J. K. Blatchford, Chicago, to the convention today. If there's a murder in one of them, it hurts the legitimate hotel's standing. Uniform state legislation making it a felony to register under an assumed name was urged, by Richard M. Gray, Chicago leading the discussion. Other speakers today were W. W. Davis, Boston; T. H. Graney, St. Louis; and Charles G. Roth, St. Paul.

THE GIFT MONTH.

December—the gift month! "Give; it is like God," says an old proverb. Christmas is a happy time because then the best feelings of the heart are elicited and allowed full play. What would otherwise be smothered down as suggestive of sentimentality, as unseemly, as indicative of a too dear dream, may venture forth in the good congeniality of the Christmas season and, quickly attaining unto beautiful gift-fulness, blossom out in good will, gladness, Christ-like kindness, blessing and blessed.

It is that there should be such a season. We are all kinder than we seem. Life as it comes to us with its imperative pressure of duty demands, its brain racking cares for the immediate future, its pitiful misunderstandings leading unto estrangements, coldness, forgetfulness—life even as it is and ever must be unto us mortals, creates, as it were, an icy film over what is the kindest and best in all our hearts.

Then comes the Christmas season, with its memories of other years, of better, happiest hours, and the hand of a little child brushes away that ice film, and there rise up silently into our busy day those gentler, feelings which, though dormant, were not dead.

At home we are loved best; there, too, we love best. In the genial Christian home, as in no other place on earth, there are full meaning, full appreciation, full enjoyment of the God given gift, Christmas.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS AT NORTH POLE

(Ed. Note) Some folks conception of a happy Christmas is very strange. They have in idea that publishing something in the guise of a Santa Claus letter concerning the faults of a friend is a huge joke. It is far from that. This department was dedicated to the little folks and not to grown-ups with infant mentality. Just to show a sample of the reams of forged Santa Claus letters the Republican receives each year, the following is reproduced.

Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a new set of needles as my old ones are about wore out. I have been a good boy all the time.

From Your Little Friend,
P. S. Please bring some "coke."

This is just one of many. Some alleged funny people pick out the "tender spots" in the lives of those they know and endeavor to cause them pain and grief by exposing them to the world. That is not the spirit of this department.

TWO PROBLEMS HAND IN HAND

National Preparedness and National Revenues Are Public Questions Closely Linked.

CONCLUSION BY F. H. GILLET

Democratic Administration Proposes One When it Has Utterly Failed in the Other.

Washington, Dec. 10.—"National preparedness and national revenues are two problems that go hand in hand.

"The Democratic administration proposes the one when it has utterly failed to solve the other."

These are conclusions reached by Representative Frederick H. Gillett of Massachusetts, ranking minority member of the Appropriations Committee. His statement has greater significance when it is remembered that for weeks Mr. Gillett has been in daily conference with both Democrats and Republicans of the House in an effort to improve the present system of financing government appropriations.

"The question of revenues is the most difficult problem the Democratic party must face when Congress meets," said Mr. Gillett. "Republicans have always claimed that lack of business efficiency was an inherent and inevitable defect in every Democratic administration. That theory has been abundantly illustrated since March 4, 1913.

"Dilatoriness, vacillation, change of plans and deficits have marked the Democratic fiscal policy. A constant excess of expenditures over receipts has been shown by Treasury statements. Furthermore, the sudden change in the form of statements adopted on the first of October, whether made for that purpose or not, had the effect of preventing easy comparisons and unfairly swelling the apparent Treasury balance.

"Now the President is going to recommend enormous appropriations for the army and navy. The serious problem will be how to pay them. In the past Republicans have been allowed no voice in these matters. Plans have been formulated by a Democratic sub-committee, endorsed by a Democratic caucus, and passed by a Democratic majority kept solid by the pressure of party tyranny and administration patronage.

"Whether the same system will prevail in the coming session will depend, I suppose upon the harmony in the Democratic ranks and the necessities of the administration. At all events I think the funds necessary for the program should be raised by taxation and not by the sale of bonds. The proposed expenditures for national defense should not be shifted on to our successors, but should be paid from current revenues.

"This involves cutting off our luxuries and pruning down our necessities on the one hand, and increasing our income on the other.

"It involves surveying the field from a business and not from a political or sectional viewpoint and that is where I fear Democratic failure. Unless the party can meet the situation with better business foresight and efficiency than it has so far displayed, the current drift toward the Republican party will become a landslide."

The most widespread disease in the world

The most widespread disease in the world today is that dread affliction of the teeth called pyorrhea. Nine out of every ten grown persons have it to some extent. You may have it and be unaware of it. Why? Because scientists have proved that the cause of this disease is a germ which inhabits every human mouth, and that thousands have this disease and do not realize it until it reaches the advanced stages of bleeding gums and loose teeth.

Accept the advice dentists everywhere are giving and take special precautions in your daily toilet against this disease. To meet the need for such a daily treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sen-tal Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Announcing the First Showing of Eagle "Silkloth" Shirts For Men at $3

As a holiday feature we shall introduce these Shirts, which are here exclusively in this vicinity.

is a new fabric invention, combining fine madras and silk fibre; producing a material which has the luster of silk and yet is as durable as serge. "Silkloth" is woven exclusively for Eagle

Shirts and thus far may be seen only at Mulno's hereabout.

The Shirts are made in plain negligee style, with soft French cuffs attached. The patterns are smart and distinctive stripes in blue, lavender and black on white grounds.

The fact that these Shirts will give a greater degree of service than all-silk Shirts, and that they retain their brilliant lustre, will undoubtedly make them popular.

We shall be glad to have you inspect them.

REDCROSS SEALS

Photoplay, "The Lone Game," Will be Used in Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign in United States.

WILL BE RELEASED MONDAY

Football, Red Cross Seals and Tuberculosis Are Cleverly Blended in This Story.

Football, Red Cross Seals and Tuberculosis are cleverly blended into a strong romance in "The Lone Game," a motion picture produced by Thomas A. Edison for the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. The picture will be released on Saturday, December 11th, and will be used as an aid in the Red Cross Seal Campaign throughout the country.

"The Lone Game" is based upon a book by Thomas Crawford Galbreath, entitled "T. B. Playing the Lone Game Consumption." The leading characters in the play are: Dean

Norman, a wealthy young college student and star player on the football team; Phil Proctor, a poor student who earns his living by coaching and tutoring, and Grace Proctor, Phil's sister, studying voice culture in a near-by city and being supported largely by her brother.

Dean meets Grace through a street-car accident. At the hospital he finds that her brother had been his tutor in college and learns that Phil has been suffering from what the physician calls malaria, but which is later found by a specialist to be tuberculosis, induced by overwork and lack of proper food. While Grace is in the hospital, Dean, to whom she has become much attached, also develops tuberculosis, brought about by neglect of a cold and living in germ-infected rooms at college. He bids Grace good-by and under most favorable circumstances, with a private car, a special nurse and every luxury money can buy, goes West to fight the disease and to play "the lone game." Phil, wrongly advised by his doctor, also starts for the West, riding by himself in a day coach, greatly weakened by his disease and with only $20 in his pocket.
When he arrives at a Western resort town, he finds that, with money gone, even though weakened by disease, he must work. He is unable to hold a job, however, and cannot secure admission to hospitals without money.
The result is that he is "passed on" weaker and weaker from town to town, until he is reduced to beggary.

Grace during this period supposes from his cheery letters that her brother is getting well. She, too, has overworked meanwhile and contracts tuberculosis, but is examined immediately at a free clinic, and is given prompt treatment in a charitable sanatorium. Here she recovers rapidly and gradually regains her lost voice.

During this time Dean, with good care and wholesome outdoor life, has been steadily improving. He had lost all trace of Grace when she went to the sanatorium until, one day, as he was riding in his automobile, a beggar fell almost in front of the machine. As they picked him up, he dropped a letter on which Dean read Grace's name and address. He recognized Phil, but all the care he could bestow came too late.

Later, restored to health, Dean finds Grace, almost well, in the free sanatorium and tells her of Phil's death. "It is for us who are saved to show others the right road to health," he says. The picture closes with a concert scene at which Grace appeals to the audience to buy Red Cross Christmas Seals for the consumptive sufferers who are "playing the lone game," followed by a scene in which Dean proposes and is accepted by Grace.

This is the sixth annual Red Cross Seal picture produced by Edison in co-operation with the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

OLDEST POLICEMAN

(By United Press.)
Massillon, O., Dec. 10.—Ohio's old-quit his job today and thus ended twenty-one years' active service. He quit because he wants to spend the remaining years of his life, with his wife, who is not so well as she once was. Walking ten miles a day on his beat kept the veteran preserver of law and order in good physical condition. Elsass claims he has walked 66,150 since his 64th birthday. He thinks that a pretty good record for a man who started at not for short of the three score mark. Mentally Elsass is alert as a man of 40. He is a veteran and draws a pension.

He says he would like to keep on working, but that he hasn't a life time before him any more and wants to be with his wife as much as possible.
His son, H. W. Elsass, is director of public service.

MEAT CAUSE OF
KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day,
eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.
To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine,
so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.
Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

A. L. GARY NAMED
RECEIVER TODAYAppointment by Judge Sparks is Satisfactory to All Concerned in
Suit Against Jacksonian.

GRAY IS DENIED NEW TRIAL

Court Holds Alleged Misconduct of Juror Jones Had no Direct Bearing on Final Outcome.

A. L. Gary was appointed receiver for the Rushville Jacksonian today by Judge Sparks. The receiver was appointed by consent of George Puntumey, one of the defendants named yesterday in the complaint and A. L. Gary was satisfactory to all parties. The defendants did not enter an appearance to the suit by an attorney and it was agreed for the interest of all concerned that a receiver should take charge of the business.

Judge Sparks this morning overruled a motion for a new trial in the malicious prosecution suit of Otis Johnson against John A. Gray. Johnson was given a judgment for $350 against Gray by the jury and then the defendant, sought a new trial. The main argument for a new trial was the alleged misconduct of Juror Jones. Judge Sparks held that the conduct of Juror Jones had no direct bearing on the final outcome of the case, and overruled the motion. It is not known whether Gray will appeal the case.

The case of the Cumberland Bank against Andrew J. McDuffie and Clifford Smith, which was set for trial today, was dismissed and the costs paid by the plaintiff. This suit was sent here on a change of venue from Hancock county. The suit was on a note in which $125 was demanded. A written dismissal was filed.

The court appointed John B. Kirkpatrick as receiver for the property involved in the case of the Greenfield Building and Loan Association against Jerry Lynam and Thomas New. The court recently gave the plaintiff judgment and the receivership is for the period of one year, or during the redemption period.

Thomas Fitzgerald was appointed guardian for Elizabeth Wright. The court found that Mrs. Wright was not capable of managing her own business and made the appointment. The bond was fixed at $500.

A motion for a new trial was filed in the suit of the Pinnell-Tompkins Lumber company against Albert and Arsula Curry. When the case was tried the court found for the plaintiff in the sum of $534.06. The property involved has been advertised for sale to foreclose the mortgage.

DECLARES STATE
DEPARTMENT FAILEDSenator Hoke Smith, in First Speech
of This Session, Deplores
England's Attitude.

REGARDING FOREIGN TRADE

(By United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 10.—The state department has failed and congress must act if American rights on the seas are to be protected, Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia declared today in the first speech of the senate session.

Diplomatic protests to Great Britain over her blockade and orders in council have brought only "increased lawlessness," said the senator. England's present conduct he termed "a bold, reckless disregard of international law."

"And the crime is more flagrant," Smith asserted, "because England is permitting her traders to send to the neutral north European ports the same sort of material she is refusing to permit our business men to send."

NO ONE WILL BE
DISAPPOINTEDPostoffice Santa Claus Announces
That he Will Deliver All Christmas Gifts Received.

IF IT TAKES ALL DAY XMAS

Postmaster Hunt Makes Some Requests of Patrons to Expedite
Work During Rush Season.

Postmaster G. P. Hunt announced today that the postoffice force would be strengthened to take care of the Christmas rush. Speed and accuracy are to be the watchwords at the postoffice.

One extra man and a horse and wagon will be used for the Christmas delivery. With this equipment the force was almost swamped last season, but the carriers managed to get all of the parcel post packages out of the way by noon of Christmas day.

The same policy will be followed this year. The postoffice will deliver all parcels that reach here. It has been the object of the postoffice management not to disappoint any person who receives a Christmas gift. For that reason everything that arrives will be given over to its owner if it is possible to locate them. There are always a few parcels undelivered because the addresses can not be found.

In order to expedite the work of the postoffice force during the Christmas rush, patrons are urged, to insure parcels, to call at the window for insurance tags and fill them out themselves. The postmaster asked that this be done last year, but even then, with the co-operation of the public, one clerk was kept busy all the time writing out insurance tags while Postmaster Hunt and his assistant had plenty to do receiving parcel post packages for mailing.

Another request that the postmaster makes is that patrons not call at the windows for Christmas parcels.

"No one realizes what that one item means," said the postmaster. "If we look up a parcel for a patron at the postoffice, we have to go back to the mailing department and sort through hundreds of bulky packages. We will deliver every parcel, whether it be on any one of the twelve rural routes out of here or in the city. I have the authority to press the rural mail carriers in the service in the afternoon after they return from their routes if the rush is too large for the present force to handle."

Postmaster Hunt gave out some instructions concerning the Christmas rush which he received from the department at Washington:

Prepare postage fully on all parcels.

Place name and address of sender on all matter.

Pack articles carefully and wrap them securely, but do not seal them, as sealed parcels are subject to postage at the letter rate.

Mail parcels early; they may be marked, "Do Not Open Until Christmas."

Insure valuable parcels.

NEW SOLDIER IN
THE RANKS TODAYGood Fellow Joins League And Asks
For a Couple of Wards to Make
Them Happy Christmas

BUT LOTS MORE ARE WANTED

Just Give The Grand Hailing Sign
of The League And You Can Get Anything You Want

The Goodfellows League had another joiner today—a new soldier in the ranks. He wants to play Santa Claus to a couple of children and his wants have been supplied. He has their names and addresses.

That makes eleven wards of the Goodfellows League who have been taken by a protector. Who's the next one? The Good Fellows may be few and far between just now, but the time is coming when they are going to be so thick that there will not be enough children to go around. That's always the case. But the point is that all of you whole-hearted Good Fellows ought to take a few right now and be prepared to supply a merry Christmas to some youngsters.

A. P. Wagoner is the latest addition to the ranks of the League. He called up this morning and said he wanted information about a pair of little folks that he could make happy on Christmas morning. His order was filled.

There are a hundred and six in the list yet and more to come. It's right next to impossible to determine now just how many there will be, but there will be plenty. All you Good Fellows who are now considering joining the League may rest assured of that.

There is room for all of the Good Fellows who want to join and there will be cases for everyone who applies. Step right up and give the grand hailing sign of the order, which is included in these cryptic words: "I want to be a Good Fellow; have you a case for me?" You will be fitted out with a case forthwith and then the receipt for a jug full of happiness is to go out and snare a lot of joy in the form of something that will bring Christmas cheer to the wards whose names you have.

Of course, all you Good Fellows are not the sort that want to see any Christmas tragedy in Rushville, if you can help it. When you have arrived at this conclusion, then it is time to act. Christmas is only two weeks off and you should have acted sooner. But that doesn't make any difference. There is still plenty of time. If you don't know of any little children who need taking care of at Christmas time, just drop a card to the Goodfellows' League, care of the Republican office, and see how quickly you get results. Nothing ever invented beat it for speed.

If you can't find time to do the shopping yourself, just send a check and the League will find some Good Fellows who will spend it for you and spend it where you will get results—Christmas happiness. Don't put the matter off another hour—not another minute even. You can prevent the tragedy of the empty stocking in at least one home. Don't think that all of the children will be taken care of, even if you fail to do your part. Many are contemplating joining the League. Now is the time. That's all.

Berlin, Dec. 10.—Socialist members of the Reichstag decided in party caucus today that the reply of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg to peace queries was entirely satisfactory.

They voted that there was, therefore, no reason for hostility toward the government, whose enemies have been continually stating that it favored annexation.

This resolution it is understood to have passed the caucus by a large majority, a few radicals dissenting.

SICKNESS GIVEN AS CAUSE

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 10.—Hugh T. Miller of Columbus today announced his withdrawal from the race of the candidates of the Republican nomination for United States senator. He gave sickness as the cause.

Miller's withdrawal was telegraphed from Faranac Lake, New York. He said specialists there ordered him to withdraw because a severe cold contracted several weeks ago developed some lung trouble. His complete recovery is expected.

News of the action spread quickly and there was some talk of Will Hays, state chairman, or Harry S. New, former national chairman, entering the field against James E. Watson of Rushville and others.

IT AMOUNTS TO
AN ULTIMATUMAmerica's Note on Ancona Case Places Country in Position to Sever Relations.

STRONG DEMANDS ARE MADE

Understood President Wilson Says
Austrian Consul Von Nuber at
New York Must Go.

(By United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 10.—America's note to Austria on the Ancona was practically an ultimatum, it was learned on high authority today.

It was stated on high authority that this country has placed herself in a position to sever diplomatic relations with Vienna if Austria does not accede to demands made in the note.

It is understood President Wilson says that Austrian Consul Von Nuber at New York must go. The evidence against this official has been accumulating for some time but as in the case of Von Papen action has been postponed, it is understood, for reasons best known to the administration.

The demands of the note to Austria are very strong and an immediate reply is requested. What are their exact nature can not be learned, but it is understood that one feature requires that the captain of the submarine which sank the Ancona be held to strict accountability for his act.

It is understood to be this government's idea that owing to the relationship between Germany and Austria it was not necessary to handle the Ancona incident from the beginning as in the case with Germany but rather to handle it with the understanding this country's attitude and that negotiations should be picked up where they were left off with Germany.

No more delays such as have been in negotiations in the Lusitania case will be tolerated.

Amusements

The Gem will show a three reel feature "A Mother's Atoneement" for the program tonight. Cleo Madison is featured. The story was written by Ida May Parks and Miss Madison is shown in a dual role. It is said to tell a powerful story. Tomorrow matinee and night "A Kentucky Idyll" will be shown.

The Princess offers the spectacular production, "Damou and Pythias" for the program tonight. It is a mammoth production full of thrills, delights and entertaining while it awes with its beauty and elaborate details. The story of Damou and Pythias is well known and the picture goes even beyond telling the story as the details are not overlooked. The show started with a matinee this afternoon and will be continuous until last show tonight.

In the latest William Fox production "Should a Mother Tell" coming to the Princess on Monday night, there is seen dramatic action that is rarely if ever beheld upon the screen. The story itself, by Rex Ingram, is one of exceptional power and represents a problem that calls for dramatic action of such intensity as could be portrayed by perhaps no other actress than Betty Nansen. As the mother torn between an almost fanatical sense of justice and a desire for happiness of her daughter, Miss Nansen has opportunities to display her wonderful emotional powers exceptionally. Stuart Holmes supports Miss Nansen and this picture is said to be remarkable in many respects.

A real London Gaiety Theater Company will invade the Murat, Indianapolis, Dec. 13-14-15th, matinee Wednesday, presenting "Tonight's The Night," a fabrication of fun and harmony which in London and New York has already dried more tears than might be contained in a cistern, prevented a hundred suicides, given a new lease on life to thousands and scattered general laughter everywhere in its proximity. London Gaiety successes have often been seen in London, but this is the first time in more than a decade that a Gaiety success has been presented in the State with a real Gaiety company.

Ever see "Pink Dolines?" That excellent plot is the basis of "Tonight's The Night." Paul A Rubens who proved in "The Sunshine Girl" and "The Girl From Utah," that genuinely original melody could be written, has written a whole lot more of it in "Tonight's The Night." What does a recital of the names of successes mean to people who have heard these successes? Nothing—yet to those who have heard those detached airs from "Tonight's The Nights," the more recounting will evoke wonderfully pleasant memories: "Please Don't Flirt With Me," "Play Me That Tune," Land and Water," "I'm a Millionaire," "Boots and Shoes," "Dancing Mad" and "Pink and White."

The principals of "Tonight's The Night" are already known to local playgoers by their individual efforts in other fields of theatre endeavor. Combined they should make an irresistible phalanx for the destruction of gloom. Among them will be found Laddie Cliff, Gyl Chadwick, Phyllis Maude, Alice Gordon, Stewart Baird, Phillip Travers, Audrey Maple, Wilfred Seagram, Dorothy Maynard, Renée Parker, Alfred Henning, Edward Naimby, Cecil, Clovelly and a number of others.

The four scenes represent a picturesque country place on the Thames; the foyer of Convent Garden during a ball masque. Covent Garden market on a busy day and the Bohemian flat of an actress in Piccadilly.

If one considers it necessary to know anything about the plot of it may suffice to say that it concerns the happenings when a pair of sweethearts strive to test the faithfulness of their swains, putting their affections to the grid of secret inquisition. Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Murat local representative. Hargrove & Mullin.

NEW YORK FASHION NOTES

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for United Press.)

'Round the world milady goes
To devise her boudoir clothes;
Often she reclines at ease
In a coat and pants Chinese;
Off an Oriental shawl
Is her only robe at all;
Japanese kimono too

Will unfold her, gay of hue;
Grecian robes, she's often wear 'em;
Also trousers a la harem.
Thus to view the exploitation
Of her robes of relaxation
Is, without exaggeration, Geographic education.

New York, Dec. 10.—Just bear in mind that bare feet are the essential accessories of the newest Grecian negligee. At least, they are almost bare since silver sandals are almost their sole covering. A lovely Grecian model of silver gauze and scarlet is offered upon the sartorial shrine of 1916. The skirt is of silver gauze and the short tunic is of silver figured in scarlet with scarlet binding around the low neck and flowing Grecian sleeves. A fillet of silver and scarlet at the head and silver sandals at the feet prove extreme attractions of this artistic new negligee. Helen of Troy may have had something on the modern maiden thus attired, but it's barely possible that she had any less on her.

Given an oblong shawl of gold embroidered gauze, or even a vividly embellished Carmen shawl of silk and fringe and, with a little time and two pins, any bright young thing can swathe her figure in the luring draperies of a bewitching and original negligee.

Borrowing an Oriental pattern for Occidental material, Miss Up To Date now wears in the privacy of her boudoir, (or if she hasn't any, the privacy of her hall bedroom will do), a coat and pair of trousers like perfect ladies affect in China. Miss Up To Date's aren't real Chinese embroidered ones, however. Goodness no! They were worn last season. This year her's are made of chiffon velvet banded around the bottom of the trousers and the coat in gold or silver gauze.

If you are simply panting to be comfortable, you can certainly be all that in these newest panty negligees. If, however, you yearn to be adorably cuddly and feminine invest at once in one of the dainty pastel tinted chiffon one piece kimono edged all around and up and down in fluffy white swansdown.

You'll look like an idealized powder puff.

That will be sure to take the shine off of any other negligee worn in your vicinity.

Remember Your Neighbors

We want to make one last plea before Christmas for the business interests of this community.

During the next few days you will all be putting the finishing touches to your Christmas shopping, and much money will be passing over some one's counters.

We ask you to remember the home merchant whenever you can do so without actual detriment to yourself. He is your neighbor, your friend, the man who has worked loyally with you to make Rushville what it is, to build up our schools, and our churches and to create all of the other advantages of which we are so proud. His money has always been ready to help along any laudable enterprise, and his voice and hands have ever been at work in the interest of you and yours, as well as his.

Spend as much of your money in Rushville, with our own people, as is possible this Christmas.

We are making this last plea in behalf of the business men without their knowledge, and it goes to you without their sanction. We are doing it because we think you are all a just people, and that wherever possible you will spend your money in such a way that it will be of benefit to all of the people as well as yourself.

For this is our home town, and home, you know, will always be just what we make it.

It is reported that reindeer meat is coming into the American market. This report follows on the heels of Secretary Redfield's announcement that the Department of Commerce has turned itself into a middleman for the distribution of toys made in Switzerland throughout the United States. Dasher and Prancer and Viven and Blitzen must go to the slaughter house, while Redfield of the sunset whisker masquerades as Santa Claus and press-agents the Swiss toy industry to the detriment of American toy manufacturers.

Current Comments

The Ineffective Tariff.

(Washington Post.)
The statement that the European war, resulting in interference with commerce and the subtraction of millions of workers from European mills, is acting as an equivalent to a protective tariff is completely disproved by statistics prepared by the Department of Commerce. These statistics show that under the present tariff law, which permits 70 per cent of all foreign goods to enter free of duty, importations are gradually increasing despite the engagement of many nations in war.

Comparing the period of eight months which ended with August, 1915, with the corresponding period of 1914, the figures show that the increase in importations is accumulating at such a rate that the difference between the war period and the peace period is merely the difference between $1,270,361,263 and

$1,150,358,960. In other words, the decline in imports is a little more than 10 per cent. This decline, as shown by the figures of the Department of Commerce, is nothing like the amount generally anticipated.

The war period imports, moreover, are compared with the period when imports had reached their highest point under the Underwood law. If compared with any period under the protective tariff law, it would be found that there has been little if any decrease in importations. What decrease there has been can be accounted for without trouble by the stoppage of importations from Germany and Austria-Hungary, yet even during the war Austria has sent $4,500,000 worth of goods to the United States, while Germany has sent nearly $37,000,000 worth.

Meanwhile, England, using all her commercial efforts to wage the war, has sent nearly $162,000,000 worth of cheap labor products to the United States. Owing to the interference of Great Britain the United States, which in eight months of the peace period sold $156,000,000 worth of goods to Germany, suffered a decline in trade amounting to $155,000,000.

Where the United States sold nearly $13,000,000 worth of goods during the peace period to Austria-Hungary, only $43,000 worth was sold during the eight months of the peace period.

The stupendous increase in the foreign-trade of the United States, upon which prosperity is depending to a great extent, was made up by the increased exports to such countries as France, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Great Britain and the nations of South America.

But the present tariff is not helping business. It is not equivalent to protection. It is wholly ineffectual at present, and it will be ruinous after the war is over.

HOOSIER HISTORY

Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.

Senators Hendricks And Turpie

The prospect of Indiana's sending two Democrats to the United States senate was appalling to the Republican minority of 1863. Especially as one of the candidates, Hendricks, was not in sympathy with the war and was known to lean towards the idea of a Northwestern Confederacy. When the Republican members of the state senate failed in the attempt to secure a pledge of loyalty from the legislature they bolted leaving the senate without a quorum. After holding out some days unsuccessfully, for favorable terms, they returned and Thomas A. Hendricks and David Turpie were elected U. S. Senators, by a vote of 85 to 62.

Proposed Northwest Confederacy

Democratic successes in the fall election of 1825 was attributed largely to the fact that the people considered that the interests of the whole Mississippi valley were identical; that their destiny was unalterably linked with the south which controlled the mouth of the river and the south was winning.

Some Democrats advocated the organization of a Northwest confederacy, composed of Indiana Ohio and Illinois, on the break up of the union, following the success of the south. To offset and check this tendency, the government bestirred itself in the great project of opening up the Mississippi river and cutting in two the confederacy.

BOSSERT FAVORED FOR CHAIRMANSHIP

Liberty Man is Said to be Slated to Lead Republican Organization
in This District.

GOOD SHOWING AS CANDIDATE

Richmond, Ind., Dec. 10.—Walter Bossert, attorney and one of Union county's hardest working Republicans, in Richmond today discussed the district chairmanship seriously with Wayne county Republicans and it is probable that he will ask for the place. Two years ago it had been arranged to make Bossert district chairman if Lynch were nominated for congress. But the plans went awry and Bossert was named as the Republican candidate for joint-senator, Wayne and Union counties. In Wayne county, outside of Richmond, he was one vote ahead Hugh Th. Miller, the "head of the ticket," but in Richmond was about 200 votes behind. He was conceded one of the strong men on the ticket. Wayne county Republicans believe that Bossert can put life into the district organization.

 * * *  SANTA CLAUS UP TO DATE. ***

* * * * *

Every year I am tempted to come out on a honsetop and tell the young and self raising generation the truth about Santa Claus.

I believed it only right that the children should know Santa Claus no longer goes about in a dinky little sleigh, delivering toys down the chimneys. He simply couldn't do it if he tried. That kind of thing was all right when his business was small and he was younger than he is now. In those days he made the toys himself—glued even the little tails of the little toy sheep in place, stuck the little eyes on the tops of their little heads, painted the little bodies as different from the real thing as he could, and do it quick, and then, hitching up his six reindeer, delivered the whole batch before sunrise Christmas morning. It is different now.

Santa Claus is old, and all he does is to live on the profits of the business. The business now is run under the name of S. Claus & Co., and the firm has many workers—clerks, drivers and the rest. Some of the employees of this big firm have grown so careless that they miss little boys and girls who live in our of the way places. Old Santa Claus never did such a thing in his life.

If any of our young people are over-looked this year they must not blame Santa Claus. He is just as jolly and good as ever. They'll have to blame it on the new driver that looks after their section of the earth.

WILL PLAY GAME OF INDOOR FOOTBALL

First Contest in Seventeen Years

Will be Staged at Milwaukee Tonight

MARQUETTE FRESHMEN PLAY

(By United Press.) Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 10.—The regular football season is all over but there is going to be one more game in Milwaukee tonight. For the first time in seventeen years, since the University of Wisconsin eleven played Carlisle, Milwaukeeans will have an opportunity to see an indoor football game.

The Marquette university freshmen and the academy team are going to meet in the auditorium, the proceeds of the game to be turned over to St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum.

More than 3,000 tickets for the game had been sold today. Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago with a delegation from the Windy City is scheduled to arrive at 7 o'clock for the game. Judge John C. Karel, Henry F. Cohens and William Juneau, all former Wisconsin university stars, will be the officials.

Between halves, Gov. E. L. Philip will speak for five minutes; Company A, Wisconsin National Guard will give some exhibition drills. A burlesque game will be played before the main event.

WHY SANTA LIVES

Was there ever a wider or more loving conspiracy than that which keeps the venerable figure of Santa Claus from slipping away, with all the other old time myths, into the forsaken wonderland of the past? Of all the personages whose marvelous doings once filled the minds of men he alone survives.

He has outlived all the great gods and all the impressive and poetic conceptions which once fitted between heaven and earth—these have gone, but Santa Claus remains by virtue of a common understanding that childhood shall not be despoiled of one of its most cherished beliefs, either by the mythologist, with his sun myth theory, or the scientist with his heartless diatribe against superstition.

There is a good deal more to be said on this subject if this were the place to say it. Even superstition has its uses and sometimes its sound heart of truth. He who does not see in the legend of Santa Claus a beautiful faith on one side and the naive embodiment of a divine fact on the other is not fit to have a place at the Christmas board. For him there should be neither carol nor holly nor mistletoe. They only shall keep the feast to whom all these things are but the outward and visible signs of an inward and spiritual grace—Hamilton Wright Mabie.

WAR BOOM TOWN DAMAGED BY FIRE

Hopewell, Va., Homes in Ruins Today Following Serious Blaze Starting Thursday Afternoon.

NEGRO REPORTED LYNCHED.

Mushroom Town of 25,000 Population is Hard Hit and Malitia Controls Quiet Today.

(By United Press.) Petersburg, Va., Dec. 10.—Hopewell, the war boom town which was ripped out by fire, after a spectacular rise in six months, was quiet today.

Reports sent by Major Bowles, commanding the militia in charge of the ruins and the fire devastated town, this afternoon indicated that order is being preserved. The militia commander denied stories of killing by his troops.

"Several companies of the national guard are maintaining strict watch to prevent looting but have not had to shoot," Bowles reported. The lynching of the negro reported by refugees arriving here, was also denied by Bowles.

Reports of violence at Hopewell, Va., reached here by courier earlier today following the failure of wire communications with the stricken powder city. The reports said three persons have been killed.

A negro was hanged to a telegraph pole. Several others, including an Italian who went insane following the loss of his money, were shot down by soldiers. Five persons were reported shot by another Italian who fired when an attempt was made to prevent him from going into a burning bank.

Hopewell, Va., Dec. 10.—This war boom town of 25,000 inhabitants, which has grown up since last summer with the mammoth new explosive plant of the DuPont Powder company, was partially in ruins today following the fire which started Thursday afternoon in a Greek restaurant and did property damage estimated at near $2,000,000. The DuPont works outside the settlement completely escaped damage, although for a time was seriously threatened.

Scenes of wild disorder accompanied the fire and citizens are said to have lynched a negro for looting. There was no loss of life otherwise, however, and only a few minor injuries were reported.

Martial law was being enforced by seven militia companies brought to the scene by a special train under orders from Governor Stuart.

While many of the buildings in the eastern section of the town were saved by a strong wind blowing in the opposite direction, some three hundred houses were destroyed, and thousands of persons left homeless. Special trains were run to Petersburg and Richmond, carrying men, women and children to find shelter.

The fire raged from 1:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon until nearly 9 o'clock at night. Available fire fighting apparatus was utterly inadequate, the flames eating their way through the flimsy frame structures, thrown up during the early days of the town last summer, like so much tinder.

Several times sparks set fire to mule sheds of the explosive factory, but the flames which followed were quickly extinguished.

When it seemed that the town was doomed and the plant endangered, orders were issued suspending all operations and the factory closed down. The shift then at work was set to work protecting the buildings from flying sparks. The gravest danger was from woods nearby, which caught fire and were still burning late tonight.

About 4 o'clock in the afternoon one-half of the town's water supply was portion of the high tension cable of the DuPont company collapsed, snapping the wires which feed the current to the Appomattox River electric pumping station. It was feared the remainder of the wires would go, but prompt efforts by workmen prevented this.

Hopewell policemen, assisted by a special force of the powder company held the situation well in hand until the troops arrived. There was the greatest confusion, but few attempts at looting.

Many of those who had personal belongings and household goods removed them to places of safety far away from the fire. Surrounding the community, which lay in ashes, could be seen men, women and children seated upon such belongings as they had been able to save. It was not unusual to see new standing nearby with freely displayed revolvers, while some flourished repeating rifles.

While the fire raged the police were busy on all sides keeping back a great throng of people eager to get near the flaming structures for a better view of the conflagration. Though many were insistent, the officers were able to keep them within the bounds of safety.

As soon as it was realized that the place was doomed, the police, assisted by experts from the powder plant, began dynamiting buildings. When the first blast was set off, many persons thought there had been an explosion of gunpowder at the big plant, but when other detonations followed the explanation soon spread and fears were quited.

Practically All of 225,000,000 Stickers Delivered in United States And Possessions

BIG ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN

Few people have any conception of the magnitude of the Red Cross Christmas Seal campaign. Here are a few figures that will show what a gigantic movement this is. Already 225,000,000 seals have been printed and practically that entire number distributed to agents in every state and territory of the Union from Alaska in the North to the Canal Zone in the south and from Porto Rico in the East to Hawaii in the West. Advertising circulars, posters, cards, etc., to the number of several million have also been distributed. Not less than 1,000,000 personal letters asking people to buy seals have been sent out. It is estimated that the army of workers, nearly all of whom are volunteers, engaged in selling the seals numbers well over 500,000. The advertising and publicity donated to the campaign amounts to several hundred thousand dollars. Every effort is being put forth to sell 75,000,000 seals, or less than one for every man, woman and child in the United States. This will mean $750,000 for the anti-tuberculosis campaign in the United States, and particularly all of the 1,200 anti-tuberculosis associations of the country derive their support from Red Cross Seals.

Combing Won't Rid Hair Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

CHAMBERS NOT OUT OF THE RACE

Editor of Newcastle Times Says he Couldn't Withdraw Because he Never Announced Candidacy.

HE HAS HEARD OF J. M. LONTZ

Richmond, Ind., Dec. 10.—Walter
Chambers, Democratic chairman of the Sixth district and editor of the Newcastle Times, denied that he had withdrawn from the contest for the Democratic congressional nomination.

"It would be impossible for me to withdraw," Mr. Chambers said in a long distance telephone conversation, "for the simple reason that I have never announced myself as a candidate for the congressional nomination."

"Now would be an excellent time
for you to make such announcement it was suggested to the Newcastle editor.

"I have nothing to say," he replied.

"Do you know of any one who intends to oppose Finly H. Gray for the congressional nomination?" he was asked.

"I have heard the name of John M. Lontz of Richmond, mentioned,"
he said.

"Anyone else?" was the next question.

"Yes, I have heard other names
mentioned in that connection but I do not care to mention who they
are," he replied.

Several days ago Mr. Lontz announced that he was not a candidate against Mr. Gray. He said he did not have any political ambitions and
merely desired to devote all his time
to his business. However, Lontz supporters point out, he did not say
he would not be a candidate and they are hopeful of inducing him to enter the lists.

All over the district anti-Gray
Democrats are now busy considering
ways and means of slipping the skids
under the Connorsville politician, and
reports from various counties indicate that the anti-Gray forces
would like very much to have Mr.
Lontz as a candidate against Gray.

CHRISTMAS DREAMS.

Where every Christmas of which
we have been present at the celebration painted accordingly to nature,
what a gallery of pictures! True
that a sameness would pervade them
all, but only that kind of sameness
that pervades the nocturnal heavens.
One clear night always is to common
eyes just like another, for what hath
any night to show but one moon and
same stars—a blue vault, with here a few braided and there a few castellated clouds? Yet no two nights ever
bore more than one family resemblance to each other before the stupid and instructed eye of him who has long communed with nature and
is familiar with every smile and
frown on her changeable, but not capricious, countenance. Even so with the annual festivals of the heart.
"Thoughts that like spirits trackless come—and go" is a fine line of Charles Lloyd's. But no bird skims, no arrow pierces the air without producing some change in the Universe.
No coming or going is absolutely
trackless, nor irrecoverable by nature's law is any consciousness, however ghostlike, though many a one,
even the most blissful, never does return, but seems to be buried among
the dead. But they are not dead, but only sleep, though to us who recall
them not they are as they had never been, and we, wretched ingrates, let them lie forever in oblivion. How passing sweet when of our own accord they rise to greet us in our solitude!—Christophre North.

have it at its own price. It has saved

apparently without a chance to live.
This station is the incubator ex-

rested in the incubator from one to four months and today they are healthy, lusty infants.

PERROTT WILL LIKELY BE TRIED

Believed That Indianapolis Police Chief Will Have Hearing on Charge Similar to Bell Case

DISMISSALS ARE EXPECTED

Perrott's Name Was Frequently Mentioned at First Trial—No One to Assist The State

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 10.—That Chief of Police Samuel V. Perrott will be tried on election conspiracy charges similar to those on which Mayor Joseph Bell was recently acquitted was the belief today prior to the hearing for motions, which will come tomorrow. There was some reason to believe that Perrott's case will be set for trial next.

Prosecutor Rucker did not hesitate to say that there will be many dismissals, but he would not intimate which of the 100-odd defendants to the indictment would not be tried.

Belief that Perrott would be forced to stand trial was based largely on the fact that his name figured largely in the evidence against Mayor Bell. Prosecutor Rucker would not deny that he intended to try Perrott next.

There were indications today that County Chairman Fred Barrett and Robert Metzger, members of the board of safety, would draw dismissals tomorrow. It was not known whom Rucker would employ to assist him, if any one. Joseph Roach, who served as deputy prosecutor during the Bell trial, has announced that he will not again assist the state.

SECTARIAN IS OF ANOTHER AGE

Denominational Bully Can no Longer Represent Christianity, Speaker Says at Conference.

CLOSES TONIGHT AT COLUMBUS

Time Arrives For one Denominational C-Operation Both in City and Rural Communities.

Columbus, O., Dec. 10.—"The narrow offensive church sectarian and denominational bully can no longer represent Christianity in this country, whatever their church affiliations. Growing co-operation among churches will at once rid all communities of such intolerant men."

This assertion by Rev. John M. Moore of Nashville, Tenn., was vigorously applauded today at the national conference of the Commission on church and country life. Rev. Moore was one of several speakers who attacked the spirit of aloofness maintained by some churches, and who urge further federation of religious organizations. Henry Wallace, Des Moines agricultural editor and former member of Roosevelt's country life commission, in an address deplored the system of tenantry and urged longer leases for farms.

The conference will close tonight with an address by President Wilson. Business sessions of the executive committee of the Federal Council of Churches will end then also.

"Some denominations have an exalted opinion of their providential and predestined importance and are not inclined to co-operation of any kind," he added. "They claim to be the Lord's peculiar people—and they are. Denominational conceit seldom lends itself to the promotion of other than self interests."

"The time has come when denominational co-operation in both city and rural church and rural church life is practically essential to any great social and religious movement. The place to begin is not in the local community, however, but in the denominational councils of those organizations directly involved."

"No minister has a moral right to preach such a sermon or express his beliefs in such a way as to give offense to persons holding different doctrines. It is denominationalism that has divided Christian people into feeble bands and made the support of competent ministers impossible. Present conditions cry out against further postponement of a great co-operative effort by churches. I hope every county in the United States will have such church federations soon, and that the churches of each city will band together for their common cause." Rev. Dr. Moore is secretary of home missions for the Methodist Episcopal church, South.

Mr. Wallace, who is widely known as a writer and speaker on agricultural reforms, declared prosperous country churches are dependent on prosperous economic conditions, and that tenantry is one of the greatest foes to this prosperity. He advocated "an arrangement of leasing that will make the tenant a reasonably permanent citizen in the community, in other words, no longer leases."

Other speakers today were Rev. E. Tallmadge Root, Boston; Dr. W. C. Clippinger, Westerville, O.; Rev. George Luncucock, Oak Park, Ill.; and Bishop William F. Anderson, Cincinnati. Prof. Shailer Mathews of Chicago, president of the Federal Council of Churches, was to preside tonight and introduce President Wilson.

Road To Health Is Through The Kidneys

No person alive is stronger than his kidneys. The minute the kidneys become disarranged or clogged with waste the warning is flashed throughout the entire system. The greater part of all sickness today can be avoided by keeping the kidneys working properly.

Johnson's Drug Store the popular druggist, can tell you of many well-known people in this city whom Solvax, the standard kidney remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit.

This remarkable kidney remedy is guaranteed to help the worst case of lazy, sluggish, or clogged-up kidneys, or the general headache, kidneybacked, played-out condition that afflicts people suffering with kidney trouble. Solvax does not simply relieve. It aims to cure.

No other kidney remedy has made such a large percentage of cures as Solvax. It is so large that Johnson's Drug Store is perfectly safe in standing ready to refund the price to any customer whom it does not help.

Pains Often Mean Uric Acid Poison
Pay Attention to Pains—Most People Have Rheumatism And Don't Know It

Ouch! Does it hurt to move your arms, legs, bend your back or stretch your muscles? Be careful and take heed in time. Rheumatism is stealing on you and may cripple you if you don't stop uric acid from settling in your veins and muscles. Rheuma, a great specialist's prescription, chases this poison out of the system and gives relief from all forms of Rheumatism. It acts through the seat of the trouble, the kidneys, stops the formation of uric acid, then drives out through the bowels that which is in the blood. Genuine Rheuma (see that you get the trade-marked package) is sold by Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists for 50 cents. Money back if not satisfied.

BETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS AT NORTH POLE

(Ed. Note) Some folks conception of a happy Christmas is very strange. They have in idea that publishing something in the guise of a Santa Claus letter concerning the faults of a friend is a huge joke. It is far from that. This department was dedicated to the little folks and not to grown-ups with infant mentality. Just to show a sample of the reams of forged Santa Claus letters the Republican receives each year, the following is reproduced.

Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a new set of needles as my old ones are about wore out. I have been a good boy all the time.

From Your Little Friend,
P. S. Please bring some "coke."

This is just one of many. Some alleged funny people pick out the "tender spots" in the lives of those they know and endeavor to cause them pain and grief by exposing them to the world. That is not the spirit of this department.

TWO PROBLEMS HAND IN HAND

National Preparedness and National Revenues Are Public Questions Closely Linked.

CONCLUSION BY F. H. GILLET

Democratic Administration Proposes One When it Has Utterly Failed in the Other.

Washington, Dec. 10.—"National preparedness and national revenues are two problems that go hand in hand."

"The Democratic administration proposes the one when it has utterly failed to solve the other."

These are conclusions reached by Representative Frederick H. Gillett of Massachusetts, ranking minority member of the Appropriations Committee. His statement has greater significance when it is remembered that for weeks Mr. Gillett has been in daily conference with both Democrats and Republicans of the House in an effort to improve the present system of financing government appropriations.

"The question of revenues is the most difficult problem the Democratic party must face when Congress meets," said Mr. Gillett. "Republicans have always claimed that lack of business efficiency was an inherent and inevitable defect in every Democratic administration. That theory has been abundantly illustrated since March 4, 1913."

"Dilatoriness, vacillation, change of plans and deficits have marked the Democratic fiscal policy. A constant excess of expenditures over receipts has been shown by Treasury statements. Furthermore, the sudden change in the form of statements adopted on the first of October, whether made for that purpose, or not, had the effect of preventing easy comparisons and unfairly swelling the apparent Treasury balance."

"Now the President is going to recommend enormous appropriations for the army and navy. The serious problem will be how to pay them. In the past Republicans have been allowed no voice in these matters. Plans have been formulated by a Democratic sub-committee, endorsed by a Democratic caucus, and passed by a Democratic majority kept solid by the pressure of party tyranny and administration patronage."

"Whether the same system will prevail in the coming session will depend, I suppose upon the harmony in the Democratic ranks and the necessities of the administration. At all events I think the funds necessary for the program should be raised by taxation and not by the sale of bonds. The proposed expenditures for national defense should not be shifted on to our successors, but should be paid from current revenues."

"This involves cutting off our luxuries and pruning down our necessities on the one hand, and increasing our income on the other."

"It involves surveying the field from a business and not from a political or sectional viewpoint and that is where I fear Democratic failure. Unless the party can meet the situation with better business foresight and efficiency than it has so far displayed, the current drift toward the Republican party will become a landslide."

The most widespread disease in the world

The most widespread disease in the world today is that dread affliction of the teeth called, pyorrhea. Nine out of every ten grown persons have it to some extent. You may have it and be unaware of it. Why? Because scientists have proved that the cause of this disease is a germ which inhabits every human mouth, and that thousands have this disease and do not realize it until it reaches the advanced stages of bleeding gums and loose teeth.

Accept the advice dentists everywhere are giving and take special precautions in your daily toilet against this disease. To meet the need for such a daily treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient

form of Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Announcing the First Showing of Eagle "Silkloth" Shirts For Men at $3

As a holiday feature we shall introduce these Shirts, which are here exclusively in this vicinity.

is a new fabric invention, combining fine madras and silk fibre; producing a material which has the luster of silk and yet is as durable as serge. "Silkloth" is woven exclusively for Eagle

Shirts and thus far may be seen only at Mulno's hereabout.

The Shirts are made in plain negligee style, with soft French cuffs attached. The patterns are smart and distinctive stripes in blue, lavender and black on white grounds.

The fact that these Shirts will give a greater degree of service than all-silk Shirts, and that they retain their brilliant lustre, will undoubtedly make them popular.

We shall be glad to have you inspect them.

TO ADVERTISE RED CROSS SEALS

Photoplay, "The Lone Game," Will be Used in Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign in United States.

WILL BE RELEASED MONDAY

Football, Red Cross Seals and Tuberculosis Are Cleverly Blended in This Story.

Football, Red Cross Seals and Tuberculosis are cleverly blended into a strong romance in "The Lone Game," a motion picture produced by Thomas A. Edison for the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. The picture will be released on Saturday, December 11th, and will be used as an aid in the Red Cross Seal Campaign throughout the country.

"The Lone Game" is based upon a book by Thomas Crawford Galbreath, entitled "T. B. Playing the Lone Game Consumption." The leading characters in the play are: Dean

Norman, a wealthy young college student and star player on the football team; Phil Proctor, a poor student who earns his living by coaching and tutoring; and Grace Proctor, Phil's sister, studying voice culture in a near-by city and being supported largely by her brother.

Dean meets Grace through a street-car accident. At the hospital he finds that her brother had been his tutor in college and learns that Phil has been suffering from what the physician calls malaria, but which is later found by a specialist to be tuberculosis, induced by overwork and lack of proper food. While Grace is in the hospital, Dean, to whom she has become much attached, also develops tuberculosis, brought about by neglect of a cold and living in germ-infected rooms at college. He bids Grace good-by and under most favorable circumstances, with a private car, a special nurse and every luxury money can buy, goes West to fight the disease and to play "the lone game." Phil, wrongly advised by his doctor, also starts for the West, riding by himself in a day coach, greatly weakened by his disease and with only $20 in his pocket. When he arrives at a Western resort town, he finds that, with money gone, even though weakened by disease, he must work. He is unable to hold a job, however, and cannot secure admission to hospitals without money. The result is that he is "passed on" weaker and weaker from town to town until he is reduced to beggary. Grace, during this period, supposes from his cheery letters that her brother is getting well. She, too, has overworked meanwhile and contracts tuberculosis, but is examined immediately at a free clinic and is given prompt treatment in a charitable sanatorium. Here she recovers rapidly and gradually regains her lost voice.

During this time Dean, with good care and wholesome outdoor life, has been steadily improving. He had lost all trace of Grace when she went to the sanatorium until, one day, as he was riding in his automobile, a beggar fell almost in front of the machine. As they picked him up, he dropped a letter on which Dean read Grace's name and address. He recognized Phil, but all the care he could bestow came too late.

Later, restored to health, Dean finds Grace, almost well, in the free sanatorium and tells her of Phil's death. "It is for us who are saved to show others the right road to health," he says. The picture closes with a concert scene at which Grace appeals to the audience to buy Red Cross Christmas Seals for the consumptive sufferers who are "playing the lone game," followed by a scene in which Dean proposes and is accepted by Grace.

This is the sixth annual Red Cross Seal picture produced by Edison in co-operation with the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

OLDEST POLICEMAN QUIT JOB TODAY

Retires From Active Service After Twenty-Five Years at Age of Eighty-Five Years

HAS WALKED 66,150 MILES

(By United Press.) Massillon, O., Dec. 10.—Ohio's oldest policeman, Michael Elsass, 85, quit his job today and thus ended twenty-one years' active service. He quit because he wants to spend the remaining years of his life, with his wife, who is not so well as she once was. Walking ten miles a day on his beat kept the veteran preserver of law and order in good physical condition. Elsass claims he has walked 66,150 since his 64th birthday. He thinks that a pretty good record for a man who started at not for short of the three score mark. Mentally Elsass is alert as a man of 40. He is a veteran and draws a pension. He says he would like to keep on working, but that he hasn't a life time before him any more and wants to be with his wife as much as possible. His son, H. W. Elsass, is director of public service.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back Hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous wastes get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink.
